cheated of their medals by former East Germans. Secret police documents first disclosed by Swimming World proved GDR swimmers were systematically doped.

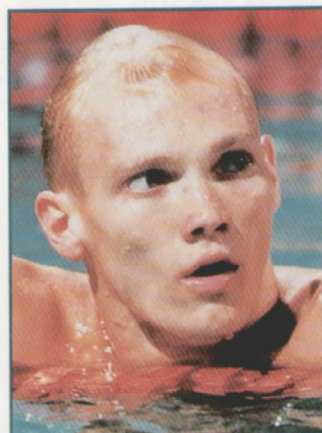

"To go back now is impossible," said

IOC head honcho Juan Antonio Samaranch, who did not explain why it was possible to redress a boxing wrong done at the 1988 Games but not a swimming wrong at the same Games.

Despite Samaranch's words, this issue is far from dead!

Saucy Aussies. There's a youth movement in Australian swimming, and some of the likely stars of the 2000 Games strutted their stuff at the Aussie Pan Pac Trials in March. Sixteen year-old Grant Hackett won the 400 and 1500 meters free (3:51.69 and 15:03.67). Third in the 400 was 14-year-old Ian

Thorpe (3:53.44). That time is 10 seconds faster than the U.S. national age group record! Geoff Huegill, 18, took the 100 fly in 52.95, just ahead of Michael Klim at 53.03. Klim won the 100 and 200 free (50.48 and 1:48.47). Scott Goodman posted a 1:56.86 in the 200 fly.

Samantha Riley is back, winning the 100 (1:10.01) and 200 breast (2:27.43), ahead of 15-year-old Kristy Ellem (2:29.32). Another 15-year-old, Natasha Bowron, went 4:12.11 and 8:42.36 in the 400 and 800 free, while Susie O'Neill was tops in both flies, the 200 in 2:09.26. (See complete results in For the Record.)

Swim Biz

Welcome! Adidas, long a major player in the swim biz in Europe, reportedly is taking the plunge in the U.S.

Meg Patrick, a former high school swimmer, has been appointed sales coordinator at Tru West.

Pardon Our Bloopers

McLean County Aquatics—not LFSC, as reported in April's Southeast regional insert—captured the girls' 11-12 400 free relay at the Illinois Age Group Championships, Feb. 28 - March 2, with a time of 3:51.28. The relay team members: Carol Hermes, Ashley Wall, Kelsey Kinsella and Katie Nord.

The dates for the Hamilton College Swim and Diving Camps were given incorrectly in our March issue. The correct dates are: Swim Camp: June 29 - July 4, July 6-11 and July 13-18. Diving Camp: July 20-25. Call: (315) 859-4754. ■
